

HARDWARE CHECKLIST

Tighten your hardware for increased performance!

Before every ride it is important to inspect and if necessary tighten hardware on your board. Not only is this something you need to do from a safety perspective but it will also enhance the performance of your board. A tight board will have more precise performance characteristics.

